

Fellow for Evangelical Engagement

The National Association of Evangelicals Fellows Program is a one-year internship in evangelical civic engagement. The internship is unpaid but interns may work part time in another paid position, or may raise funds through their church or other supporters, which will be made available for living expenses.

Qualifications

- Personal commitment to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord
- Commitment to the NAE mission, affirmation of the NAE Statement of Faith, and membership in the NAE
- Active participation in and endorsement by an evangelical church, and familiarity with the broader evangelical community
- Agreement with the principles for evangelical civic engagement outlined and explained in the NAE document “For the Health of the Nation”
- Strong written and oral communication skills; preference is given to those who have experience working with websites, traditional and social media, and research outlets
- Ability to understand and clearly summarize both policy and technical information
- Flexibility to adjust to the needs of the NAE office and programs

Responsibilities

- Promote informed dialogue among NAE members leading to effective civic engagement on issues outlined in “For the Health of the Nation,” as assigned
- Research issues and produce informational materials and updates targeted to the evangelical community
- Assist evangelical leaders in drafting and placing blogs, articles and op-eds on NAE issues
- Coordinate with other organizations and coalitions involved in the same issues; represent the NAE at coalition meetings and report back on meeting results
- Assist with development of proposals raising funds to support and extend the NAE’s work
- Assist with events planning and office operations
- Prepare reports on work performed
- Contribute to the success of the NAE as a committed, engaged team member
- Raise or supply funds for personal support needs
- Other duties as assigned

Relationships

- The NAE Fellow reports to the Vice President for Government Relations.
- The NAE Fellow coordinates with the Vice President/COO and Communications Director.

The position is located in Washington, D.C. Some domestic travel may be required. To apply, submit a resume, cover letter and writing sample to GCarey@NAE.net.

011316